

STOP VIOLENCE AND HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS TO TUMBAK RESIDENTS, EAST MANGGARAI, EAST NUSA TENGGARA PR

PERS RELEASE

On 13 September 2014, there has been violence carried out by police officers at the Manggarai and military forces against the Lingko Roga people, Tumbak, Satar Punda village, Lamba Leda sub-district, East Manggarai regency. The violence was triggered by the effort of PT. Aditya Bumi Pertambangan to accommodate a heavy equipment for drilling into the customs territory of the citizens (Lingko Roga). That activity received resistance from residents who have created a posse to defend their Lingko since September 11, 2013.

People's position which try to defend their communal land was persuaded by government officials, ranging from the head of the village, district, police and military. Residents, along with the Justice, Peace, and Integrity of Creation (JPIC) Commission of SVD Ruteng, remained in that location. They did worship together at the location. Their persistence made the apparatus and the company could not be patient. At 5 pm, on 13 September 2014, 5 pieces of car company backed up by police cars forced their way into the site. A peaceful efforts of the residents faced with violence by the authorities. Police forced people to dissolve the posse, by pulling forcefully and snarling them. In fact, a police officer from Dampek, named Yonatan Nila, roughly and rudely pull shoulder of JPIC Ruteng SVD's coordinator, Fr Simon Suban Tukan. As a result, Father Simon fainted.
